We're Glad to Hear It.

Friday evening, June 12, has been set the date for the second performance of The Christian by Orlin's local players.

Norway should feel justly proud of this company of amateur actors and actresses whose work, under the careful direction of Mr. Orlin, rivals that of any high priced and high class attraction that has ever been seen in the local play house.

The production of The Christian was the most stupendous and daring ever attempted by amateurs but the result was one that for many a day will be the talk of our town.

In view of the big success with which this play was crowned, and in order to give every one a chance to witness it,

Mr. Orlin and his company, much to the pleasure of our theatre goers, are going to repeat this fine play complete in every detail, and exactly as presented on June 8th, on the above date.

Everybody, both old and young, should see it, the scenery and electrical effects are the best that have as yet been used by this company, and that is saying a great deal.

Tickets go on sale at Stone's, Friday evening, June 12, at 7 o'clock. Positively no seats pulled until sale opens.

A Common Error

The Same Mistake Is Made by Many Maine People.

It's a common error. To plaster the aching back, To rub with liniments rheumatic joints, When the trouble comes from the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. Peter McQuade, 49 Park St., Lewiston, Me., says: "I was a sufferer from kidney complaint for many years. It was worse from time to time, some of the attacks being really torture. I used plasters and various medicine but in spite of all my efforts for relief I got so bad that I could not walk for any distance, and was unable to get up or down stairs. Just after I had spent five dollars for a remedy that did me no good, I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, got a box at a drug store and began using them. In a short time they had done me more good than all the other remedies I had previously used. I am well along in years, and could hardly expect a complete cure, but I am, indeed, thankful to have found a remedy that always brings relief. I keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand all the time and take a few doses occasionally, finding that they keep me in good health." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-McClellan Co., Buffalo, N. The Trip to Play-house.

Written for the Advertiser.

They started on the stage-coach, The night was dark and gloomy, But what cared those five spinners Who were going for a lark? They reached the farm and school-house, Thru mud and dust and sand, And sang and laughed and whistled, That happy old-maid band. 'Twas Knight and Green and Beverage, And Ellis and Irene; And happy were those ladies When Play-house sign was seen. They 'lighted from the stage-coach, They grabbed their bags and skirts, And started for the Play-house Thru all the rain and dirt. They reached the neat green cottage, And, straight, strange garbs appeared, And o'er the lake and billides Wild shrieks and howls were heard. The fishes all were frightened, And all but two "skiddooed." And these two poor spinners trooped By Irene were subdued. Thru Saturday they slept the lake, And on Sunday morning they awoke, And on the bright shining shore, Who saw had left their frizzies And more than half of clove. Oh! Sunday morn was glorious; The mist was on the lake, And rising with the sunlight Upon that mirror-pond; And all the evening and morning Three from our midst were gone. Next morning on the stage-coach Four maidens were to go, To leave that happy camp-house, Foster-McClellan and tame. No happier time can spinners Upon this earth enjoy. Than a trip to Knight's cottage Where no cares but the duties employ. And seven old maids of Norway Are gathered before, Because they went to Play-house Where troubles all are o'er.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one cure, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it has a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness results, and unless the inflammation can be got on and out of the tube, the hearing will be destroyed forever. Deafness is caused by Catarrh, which is nothing more than an inflammation of the mucous membrane.

We have one hundred dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh. Do not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

"The Only and Original."

Clark City, P. Q., May 22, '08.

To the Editor of the Norway ADVERTISER:—I have had so many requests for something of a story of our trip from Norway to Clark City that I am wondering if you can't paste on an extra sheet to the Norway ADVERTISER some time when you are short up for news and help me out a bit.

We arrived at Quebec at 8 o'clock on Friday morning, May 15, and had a whole day in that quaint old city. The old forts, the high masonry wall around the city, the terrace and the many other places of interest I shall always remember. I am not a Kipling, and cannot describe the scene in Canada as I saw them on the way here. There was one thing in Quebec that struck me curiously and that was the odd contrivances for conveying traffic through the streets. Everything is carried on two wheels; the carts looked to me like a long ladder stretched across an axle with two wheels and the horse was about three rods from the cart.

We left Quebec at 8 o'clock Friday evening for Clark City, and that trip afforded us a plenty of amusement and interesting places to visit. On our way from Quebec to Clark City we visited the following ports: Rimouski, Gaud-beau, Point Desmoules, Trinity Bay, East Trinity Bay, Caribou Island, Egg Island, English Point, Pentecost, May Island. Except Rimouski these ports were small places.

From Quebec to Clark City is 350 miles and we were two days and three nights making the trip. We were met at the mouth of the St. Marguerite river by a train to take us nine miles to Clark City. Now the good people of Norway know nothing of what it is to ride on a first class train in Clark City. It was a special kind of car, one engine, a stove, a schoolhouse and a mill under construction. The schoolhouse is being now used for a boarding-house.

As far as the eye can see, in any direction, it is a dense forest. There is no game here, but five hundred miles up the St. Marguerite river game of all kinds abound in plenty. There are hundreds of Indians up the river now, where they go up in the fall and hunt during the winter, coming down the river in June to bring out their furs. The fishing is something great. It is no sport to go fishing here; it is like picking up potatoes. If some of the Norway fishermen could be here for about two hours they would learn the difference between chasing a three-inch trout up and down a small brook until they run his meat all off, from pulling out an eighteen-inch trout that will bite at anything that drops in the water. If Al. Wyman were here he would do nothing but fish—couldn't help it.

Every man who lives here owns from three to seven dogs. These dogs are used for dog-teams in the winter, which are the only teams they have here. In the winter time these dogs carry the mail a distance of 250 miles. They are not like our dogs at home, but are the Siberian wolf. As for color and size they look exactly like the pictures I have seen of the gray wolf. The dogs are very kind, but will bark at you all times. If they catch a man down and get a taste of blood they will tear him to pieces as ravenous as a pack of wolves. I would not advise any one to come here, who is looking for employment, unless they make arrangements before. The company has not the room to accommodate any more men. Sincerely yours, GILBERT A. RUSSELL.

Recipe Is Easily Prepared at Small Cost and Many Swear by It.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive Kidneys, overcome Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary Troubles, even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Those who have tried this say it positively cures the pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print the remarkable prescription, in October, of 1903, since which all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

OXFORD POMONA GRANGE.

Oxford Pomona Grange met with Hebron Grange, June 23. Twelve Granges were represented, as follows: Hebron, East Hebron, Paris, West Paris, Norway, Bear Mountain, Crooked River, Oxford, West Minot, Frederick Robie and Fryeburg. After the regular business the following program was carried out: Music by Grange choir; selection, Mrs. Rebecca Shedd of Bolster's Mills; remarks by C. H. Prince of Buckfield and J. H. Little of Bryant's Pond, along a patriotic line.

After the dinner and a social hour the committee on arrangements reported the next meeting would be at Bear Mountain Grange, Buckfield, the first Tuesday in August. It was decided to have the Oxford Pomona field meeting at Penley's Grove, South Paris, Aug. 27th. Arrangements were left with South Paris Grange. An invitation was received to the exercises at the U. of O. Orono, June 10, when the corner-stone of the new Agricultural Building will be laid. The program was again taken up, with music by the choir and an address by B. Walker McKee of Fryeburg.

Mr. King of Paris gave a paper on Indirect Taxation. Automobiles, a rich man's plaything, are a tax on farmers of to-day, rendering some good horses nearly useless during the summer. Poor roads, unhusbanded carriages and farming tools are some of the taxes causing an unnecessary tax. A question:—Do road machines benefit the highways? was discussed by J. H. Roberts of Norway and others.

Mrs. Jackson, secretary of the Pomona Grange gave reading. Mrs. Abby Marshall of Hebron had a paper on "Household Economy." The word economy means thrift and frugality, in time and labor, as well as in the use of money.

It is reported that the Rickers of Poland Springs will build a hotel on the Fiske lot at Old Orchard.

BOSTON BANKER SPENT LAST EIGHT YEARS IN MISERY

Carlton H. Hutchinson, a leading banker and broker of Boston, with offices at 8 Congress Street, in that city, has recently come out with a very strong statement.

In the widespread discussion over Cooper's new theory and medicines which has spread over the country so rapidly, Mr. Hutchinson has taken the side of those who say that Cooper's theory is correct and his medicine all that he claims.

Mr. Hutchinson's emphatic statement is as follows: "Anyone afflicted with chronic ill health and a general run-down condition caused by stomach trouble, who does not try this man Cooper's medicine, is very foolish. I say this after a most remarkable experience with the medicine."

I heard of Cooper's success first when he was in Chicago, as I have a private wire to that city in connection with my business. Later, when he came East, I learned more of him and his theory that stomach trouble causes most ill health. I have had no faith in anything not prescribed by a physician for each particular case after careful diagnosis, but after eight years of constant suffering during which time I spent over $1,500 with absolutely no relief, I felt that it would at least do no harm to try the medicine which I was hearing so much about.

"During these eight years I have been forced to go without solid food for five and six weeks at a time. I always had a sour stomach, was troubled with formation of gas, and led the usual miserable life of the dyspeptic. I was dull, tired, nervous and gloomy all the time, and was always constipated."

"I have taken Cooper's medicine a comparatively short time. For the past month I have not had the slightest sign of stomach trouble. I can eat anything with no bad effect whatsoever. I have a fine appetite, am gaining flesh very rapidly, am cheerful, full of energy, and my nervousness has disappeared. My bowels are in perfect condition for the first time in eight years."

"I do not hesitate to say that I would not take $50,000 and be back where I was. My relief and thankfulness is beyond description."

We sell Cooper's famous preparation described in the above statement.

—F. P. Stone druggist, Norway, Me.

of National Banks is every year becoming more rigid, the examination into every detail more careful. It is the purpose of the Government to make the word "National" in connection with a bank synonymous with "Safety."

In addition to the frequent and regular examinations of the books of THE NORWAY NATIONAL BANK OF NORWAY, MAINE by National Bank Examiners under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency, a similar examination is made several times a year by a committee of Directors. This for you as one of the depositors in that bank. So does this financial statement: Resources, $400,000; deposits, $234,000; capital, surplus and undivided profits, $92,000. The convenience, safety and simplicity of a checking account in this bank should be known and appreciated by every farmer and business man in this section of the State.

A Good Thing and Nothing to Pay.

Just see what Dr. Greene offers to do for all weak and suffering people. He is the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. His unparalleled offer to consult with anyone, free of charge, by letter correspondence is doing wonderful good. If you have any complaint which you do not thoroughly understand, and which you would like cured, write the Doctor a letter stating just how you feel and what symptoms trouble you. He will answer it, giving a complete description of your case, explaining the meaning of every symptom, and telling how you can surely get well and strong. He gives most careful attention to each letter, and explains your case so thoroughly that you understand exactly what ails you. All this costs you nothing, you have no doctor's fees to pay, and you don't have to leave your home. The Doctor makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and they nearly always get well. And may he visit some of the other roads where there has been no repairing for over two years.

Another Batch from Rumford Falls.

County Attorney Charles P. Barnes had a busy couple of days at Rumford Falls the first of this week. Complaints for single sales of intoxicating liquors were put in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Perkins and the local officers and thirteen suspects were promptly haled before Judge Stearns for trial on Monday afternoon. The court was busily occupied until 1.30 Tuesday afternoon, and every respondent found guilty and sentenced.

Albert Paradis, Hugh McKinnon, James Gallagher and E. H. Peters, all offenders, were each sentenced to $50 and costs and 30 days in the county jail. Frank Raymond, Fred Prue, Joseph Dougan, Bonnie Buchanan, Alfred Jones, Arthur King, Frank Pelletier, Dan McCafferty and Fred Chambers, neither of whom had been before the Rumford Falls municipal court before for offenses against the prohibitory law, were fined $50 and costs each, and every respondent found guilty and sentenced.

Before sentencing them the judge exacted from each a promise to quit the business of selling liquors of any sort, even the selling of so-called "soft" drinks, within the limits of Oxford, Prue, Buchanan, Dougan, King, Pelletier and McCafferty paid and were discharged. The others all claimed appeals.

It would seem that it might be difficult for anyone except a known perjuror to buy whiskey in Rumford Falls, as a new crop of pocket peddlars and underground keepers spring from the dragon's teeth that Rumford's rum express compels so busily now. Six cases were vigorously contested and it was hot work, with the mercury hovering at 100 degrees, for Messrs. Foster, Blanchard and Theriault who appeared for the respondents.

Our Summer Residents.

With the advent of beautiful June the summer visitors are beginning to arrive at this charming burg. At the Lake House already are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stevens of Boston who have been spending the late winter and early spring at this comfortable hostelry. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren and Mrs. Blomer of Newton Center, Melville J. Kimball and O'Neill Kimball of Malden, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Tolman of Malden, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Parker and Dorothy Parker of Boston, who will occupy their pleasant cottage about July 1st. On the evening of June 5th, a banquet was given by the "Alpha Chi Sigma" of Bridgton Academy at the Lake House. To say this was served in the usual good taste as is manifested by the proprietor and his accomplished wife is all that is needed in the way of praise. Toasts, impromptu speaking, orchestral music and dancing followed the banquet, the menu of which we give:

Base Ball.

P. H. S. S. E. H. S. S.

Paris High school won from Bridgton High a very lively game Saturday afternoon. The game was played with a snap and dash by both teams that made it an interesting contest to witness. The excellent pitching of L. Clark was one of the leading features of the game.

One of Bridgton's two hits was a fly ball which Titcomb lost in the sun, and the other came in the ninth inning after Paris had had an easy chance to retire the side. His best work was in the third inning, when with men on second and third and none out, he struck out the next three batters.

Three very fast plays prevented Bridgton from scoring in the fifth inning, when they filled the bases with none out. Cutting got the first out by making a fine catch of a long fly. G. Clark then won applause by pulling in a high foul fly, and Curtis closed the inning by getting Smith's line drive which was labeled a hit.

Those who set out trees on the north side of lower Main street after the big fire have now something to show for it. During the years that have passed—that seem but a day—the trees have been growing till they are a row of sturdy young trees all along the sidewalk. This is equally true of the trees that were planted in other localities at that time. Now the places where no trees were planted look bare. Even the unpaved lots would be more valuable if the owners had planted trees.

Commencement Exercises.

The graduating class of Norway High school held their exercises, Thursday evening, at the Opera House. This class is comprised of 16 members, ten girls and six boys. They made a most commendable appearance, their papers were brief and concise and each spoke in a clear manner so as to be heard in every part of the house.

The decoration of the stage was done by the juniors. A large arch of evergreen, with the class motto, "Possumus quia posse videmus" and beneath the letters N. H. S., '08, was at the rear of the stage and formed the background with potted plants at the side front of the stage with a bank of evergreen and lilac on the floor across in front of the footlights.

The usual seating capacity of the house was augmented by seats along the side of the hall and nearly every available seat was taken. At 7 o'clock the eight o'clock Stearns' orchestra with Walter Young at the piano began playing. The class marched to their seats led by Homer D. Tubbs, marshal. Seats upon the platform were taken by Principal Percival E. Hathaway, Myrtle Blackwood, Caro Beverage, Winthrop B. Stanley, Supt. Charles P. Barnes and the school committee, Judge W. F. Jones, Geo. E. Tubbs, H. L. Horne.

Another selection by the orchestra and prayer was offered by Rev. S. C. Dotter. Appropriate to the occasion, expressing thankfulness for the schools and asking for blessing upon the schools, scholars and graduates. A third selection by the orchestra and the speaking began.

Florence Annie Rideout was salutatorian and the subject of her essay was, "The Power of Character." The first part of this was given in Latin. One of the most potent factors which are for the uplift of mankind is the power of character. It is the result of years of gradual, unseen growth of man's inner nature, stamped and moulded by education. Silently, and oftentimes unthinkingly, we are moulding character.

Sarah Alice Freeman took for her theme "Education." Many years must be spent to obtain the education that makes great men and women. It requires perseverance and determination. There are always plenty of opportunities for the ambitious to obtain an education. Travel adds greatly to education and if we do not use our knowledge to help others it is of little value to us.

"The Value of our Forests" was the subject chosen by Harry Frye Dowling. He told of the waste in lumbering operations, consumption of the forests for pulp wood, destruction by fires and other things that are decreasing our forests at an alarming rate. The value of the forests was also shown and illustrated by incidents in our history, and that he dealt with the methods that are being employed to preserve them. The estimated value of our forests is $700,000,000, 22 per cent. being in government reserves.

"True Friendship" by Elizabeth Myrtle Millett portrayed the character of the honest man, the true friend. Kindness, justice and generosity are qualities that are found in his make-up. The best and truest friend is the mother. Honesty and truthfulness are traits that give friends. The value of friendship was fittingly illustrated.

Jennie Emma Mann told of the "Advantages of the Modern Girl." The girl of to-day has many advantages in social and business life that was not possessed by the girl of years ago. Then she devoted her entire time to household duties but now education places her on an equal with these of the other sex. There are normal schools for both men and women, and colleges for women as well as men. The girl of to-day is free in every way. There are women lawyers, doctors, architects, and in fact they are found in nearly all vocations.

"The Development of Steamboat Service," by Homer Dean Tubbs, told of the beginning of the building of steamboats and followed up the industry to the present time. In the early days the boats were crude and slow going. The boats of the present time are large, strong, pleasing to the eye. Those of the Cunard line were used as an illustration of this fact.

Pearl Eva Lulu Harriman's subject was "Success." This can only be obtained by constant, patient toil. We should never consider just an accumulation of wealth as success. The foundation must be laid in our youth. The person who is so self-narrowed himself to much, loses interest in home and denies himself the pleasure he should enjoy. To gain success we must have a perfected idea.

In a pleasing manner Sara Adnah Danforth told the Class History in Chronicles from the fourth grade to the present time. While in the grades each one of their classmates Oscar and then again their teacher was taken by the Angel of Death. At the close of the history the were well given.

"Nature, Our Great Teacher," was by Maud Rose Mixer. She gave many reasons why we should have knowledge of, and interest in, the study of geology and the value of the gems of Maine. Here are found tourmalines, copper, silver, iron, tin and other various. Paris Hill tourmalines are among the best in the world. Mount Mica gems are known from Maine to California. Tourmalines are now the national gem of our country.

"Books as Friends," by Gertrude L. Stearns, was the subject of her essay. Books are coming more and more into their own and the height of its power is yet a long way off. There are all kinds of the different tastes, and great minds are developed by reading we should choose the best. One book may start a new line of action in many minds.

Byline Allen dwelt on "The Future of Agriculture." The filling of the soil furnishes the basis of our life and is a question of great importance. There is a rapid increase in production and a decrease of large areas. It has been predicted that the population in 2080 will be 125 per cent. to the square mile as against 25 at the present time. This will make necessary an enormous increase in production. The millions must be fed and scientific agriculture must be developed.

The Class Prophecy was presented in an excellent manner by Josephine H. Stearns. As the future of each member

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ailments, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has cured thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

was told a doll appropriately dressed was lowered into eight from above the stage and remained hanging until she finished speaking when Miss Stearns presented them to the members of the class as souvenirs. The first object lowered was an air ship known as "The Flying Flyer." Seated inside were two dolls. This was to represent the rescue of Miss Pike from Siberia where she had been sent by the Czar at St. Petersburg as he believed that she was an anarchist. The rescue was made by Harry Dowling.

Walter Mayford Mann had for his subject "Harnessing the Forces of Nature." The first natural force to be employed was water and it is now used to generate electricity and for many other purposes. The discovery of electricity has made water power more useful. Water power is used for windmills, sailing boats, pumping water and many other things. Even the ocean has been used to generate electricity. Nearly every natural force has been harnessed by man.

The essay and valedictory, "We Build Not for the Present but for the Future," was by Maud Ellen Pike. Now is the time we ask ourselves whether or not we have used our opportunities for the best advantage. This generation will be the next citizens of this country. If we are building for life character must be the corner stone of our preparation. The value of the thorough preparation cannot be too strongly shown. The last of the valedictory was given in Latin.

Harry Lennon Horne was excused from speaking.
Instead of the usual musical numbers selections were made by the students, under the direction of the music teacher, Clara L. Ellis. The first by the seniors, juniors and sophomores with the solo part by Gladys Buck and with Maud Pike.

The second selection was by the freshmen with Genevieve Barker at the piano and at the close of the speaking the singing was by the sixth grade.

The diplomas were presented to the members by the superintendent Charles P. Barnes and the Don C. Seitz prize of $25 in gold was awarded to Maud E. Pike. The singing of the class ode, which was composed by Elizabeth Myrtle Millett, finished the program.

The bouquet of flowers were presented to the speakers by Helen Howe. The graduation ball, Friday evening, was attended by about 60 couples on the floor and a good sized crowd of spectators from the fourth grade to the piano.

Stearns' orchestra. The grand march was led by Floor Manager, Charles S. Akers and Mrs. Akers, followed by Principal and Mrs. Percival E. Hathaway and the members of the Senior class.

An excellent order of dances was carried out and all unite in declaring it one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

Upper Primary School.

The closing exercises at the Upper Primary were held Friday afternoon. The principal feature of these was the singing by the children, Miss Ellis directing in a way to give the patrons a very good idea of the year's work in music. The best drawings for the year were exhibited about the room.

The children not absent one-half day were:

Adeline DeCoster, Grace Dearborn, Roy Fletcher, Lloyd Fletcher, Harry Johnson, Forest Langley, Edna Langley, Myrtle Libby, Fannie McKen, Stanley True.

Fourteen were promoted to third grade.

OF NORWAY.

New England railroads are no longer to carry dogs free, as heretofore. The problem of transporting dogs has been settled by an agreement that canines shall be checked as excess baggage. This rule has been accepted at a conference at which every railroad in this part of the country was represented except the New York, New Haven and Hartford. It will now be advertised for thirty days and if no valid objection is raised and it is acceptable to the Interstate Commerce commission, it will go into effect on July 1. If the experiment proves successful in New England, the scheme will probably be adopted by railroads throughout the country.

State Summer Schools.

Much interest is shown in the State Summer schools for teachers which are to be held this year. In the several normal schools. Nine distinct courses of study will be offered in each school. These courses are arranged with a view to meeting the needs of teachers in grade and rural schools and each course will be under the direction of a teacher at special training for his department.

The Methodists in conference have voted that the "presiding elder" shall hereafter be known as the "district superintendent," a more up-to-date title, perhaps, but not nearly as awe-inspiring.

The Maine Apple.

How Maine Apple Growers and Packers Scandalize Their State in Foreign Markets

The Turf, Farm and Home says:—We are glad to learn that the first grower of Turner have taken the matter into their own hands and are organizing an association to encourage the growing, packing and marketing of their fruit. The association ought to be a good deal larger than Turner, for it should embrace the whole State. Maine has a fortune in the opportunities for fruit growing it possesses, but it matters not how much fruit is grown, nor of how good a quality, if those who grow it have not the capacity or the inclination to pack and market it intelligently, it is all for naught. We have already told our readers how the American fruit is slaughtered in the English market.

The growers themselves are too often easily to blame for this condition, for fruit that is carelessly or dishonestly packed is sure to be slaughtered in the auction rooms, and the poor sorting is given as the excuse. If the grower could be an organization of fruit men in Maine who would have the intelligence and the honesty to establish a reputation so that their mark on a package would stand for something, it would only be a few years before Maine apples would have a reputation second to none in the country the world over. Speak to an English consumer or commission man of Maine apples and nine out of ten will shrug their shoulders and tell you that they have handled them almost everywhere. The Maine apple packer is the man who has brought this unequaled reputation upon us. If the Turner organization can establish and maintain a reputation for honest dealing and honest goods there is a prospect of Maine becoming rich from her apples and her orchards.

Well, what can you say to that. Indictment of Maine's apple growers and packers for the fruit market? Humiliating as it is, it is true, and no language is too severe to describe the dishonesty and characterize the meanness of those Maine orchardists who, regardless of every principle of fair dealing, gather their annual crop of splendid apples and dump them into barrels in a belter-skelter manner, big and little, sound and bruised, and worm eaten, all together. What a mass of unmarketable goods for a Maine "honest old farmer" to ship away to a market—no matter where—composed of millions of discriminating buyers and consumers. To get a barrel of No. 1 Baldwins or other kinds, three average barrels have to be picked over. "The Maine apple barrel" is a subject of derision and scorn in the English market. "And the Maine apple-packer is the man who has brought this unequaled reputation upon us," says the critical writer. There is no use in denying that the way our fine apples are packed, in many instances certainly forfeits the right of the packer to be considered an honest man.

It would be rash and unjust to attempt to criminate the whole mass of Maine orchardists into this sweeping accusation of the writer quoted above. Doubtless a good proportion of Maine apple growers and packers are guiltless of the shameful practices by which the dishonesty of others have incurred the contempt and condemnations of the dealers and consumers in foreign markets upon the fruit growers of our State. No matter, dear friend, where your apples find a final market, and are first opened to inspection, whether in Boston, New Orleans, San Francisco, or Havana, London or Paris; the manner of their packing on the Maine farm will appear and will surely convict the unknown packer who is responsible for the scandal and disgrace thus brought upon his State in distant cities or countries.

The writer hereof has heard this subject discussed in farming circles, and has heard instances of dishonest dealing related most discreditably to the parties mentioned. Here is one. A farmer in an Oxford county town, who was praising the quality of his apples to a friend residing in Boston, was asked to send a few barrels of his best apples to the Boston market. When the consignment of fruit was received at a tight corner to the citizen of the Hub that he would present a barrel of his choice No. 1 Maine grown fruit to the members of his lodge or club at the next meeting.

As he had not opened any barrel and had no suspicion of the condition of the contents of the packages he was entirely unprepared for the mortifying surprise that awaited him later. The barrel of fruit was duly delivered at the rooms of the fraternity designated, and the brother who was assembled to participate in the pleasure of inspecting and eating their fill of the famous Maine apples so generously donated by their fellow member.

The barrel was opened and its contents exposed to view. Instead of finding a barrel of large, beautiful high-colored fruit, they beheld a mass of very inferior apples carelessly packed and in a most uninviting condition. We can imagine the emotions of the donor, when he contemplated the outcome of his well-intentioned scheme to his brothers of the lodge. He is reported to have said he would rather have given a hundred dollars than to have the duplicity of the man whom he regarded as an honest friend, revealed to him and his society conferees at such an inopportune occasion.

A young man of my acquaintance who was engaged for some time last fall in a neighboring town packing apples for general market, told me his method of packing the barrels, which was dictated to him by his employer. He placed a couple of layers of sound, sizeable apples in the bottom of the barrel, and then dumped into it from a basket a lot of unsorted fruit of indifferent quality as to size and soundness, facing the top of the barrel with two layers of good apples. That manner of putting up apples for market is very far from the methods prescribed by the teaching of our State Pomological Society, and it would do the average apple grower a lot of good to take a few lessons from some of our veteran pomologists like Z. A. Gilbert or C. Pope.

Nature has given the farmers of Maine in every season as good a soil and favorable climate for the growing of superior apples as any State can boast. And it is gratifying to know that the owners of good fruit land generally appreciate the advantages they possess, for growing abundant crops of excellent fruit, according to the kinds they raise and the degree of culture the trees receive. The handling of the crops after the apples are mature is the most critical period of the grower's experience, calling into requisition such talents as harvesting skill and judgment in sorting and packing, and a good share of the human quality defined by the Golden rule.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free of charge, by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When you write mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
